At Less Than New Laces Half Their Value.

One of the leading lace houses in New York sold us last week a lot of the most desirable Laces of the season at a fraction of their real value.

Richmond women will appreciate in a moment after these goods what extraordinary values they are.

Union Labor vs. Mormonism

Mr. Ira E. Bennett, one of the editors of the Washington Post, and a writer of marked ability, is making a tour of the West with a view to writing a series of special articles on public questions of general interest.

We have been fortunate in securing this series of articles for our Sunday edition. The first article is a non-partisan review of the battle for and against Mormonism in this year's campaign. Mr. Bennett gives character sketches of leading figures on both sides of the conflict, and discusses the question of whether or not Mormon influence is growing in Idaho, Wyoming and adjoining States.

This article will be one of the features of the
